YEAR-END TRIP TO TOKYO

The best time to visit Japan would be during Christmas until New Year to get the Festive Christmas. In between 29th December to 3rd January; most of Japanese people return to their home town to celebrate the New Year with their family, relatives and friends.

Tokyo is the best of modern Japan. This huge city has incredible food, diverse neighbourhood, and some unforgettable experience. Few insight to get started:

1. Maricar: Dressing up as Mario characters and driving a go-kart around the Tokyo streets
2. Tokyo Disney Sea: The nautical theme park features seven ports inspired by real places and ocean legends including American Waterfront, Mediterranean Harbor (which looks just like Italy), Arabian Coast, and the unique Mysterious Island complete with erupting volcano.
3. Robot Restaurant: This show is the energetic and totally unique performance features robots, dragons, ninjas, blue-haired dancers, creepy clowns, guitarists on swings, drums, a whole lot of neon lights, and really loud music.
4. Harajuku: Tokyo's youth neighborhood with Takeshita Street at its heart. You may found the cosplay kids, browse the quirky fashion stores, and eat from one of the popular crepe stands. You can also visit the elegant shopping street Omotesando, the Meiji shrine within Yoyogi Park, and the Ota Museum.
5. Shinjuku Gyoen National Garden: It's a wonderful oasis from busy Shinjuku and one of the best places in Tokyo for a picnic. There are Japanese, French, and English gardens.
6. Tokyo Metropolitan Government Building: the best place for a free view to see the skyscrapers and highways lit up in the darkness until Mt. Fuji in in clear morning.
